

Web Site Creation Providers

29/09/2016

Web Site Provider	Links	Comments
Cambridge University Personal Filespace
Further info	https://help.uis.cam.ac.uk/website-resources/web-application-development/ds-web	Provided free by the University, available with valid Cambridge user's PWF/MCS account
Example site	http://people.ds.cam.ac.uk/tecb2	Requires software development tool (e.g. Dreamweaver - available on the Desktop Services PC's) and possibly some html code
Remote access to personal filestore	https://dsfiles.ds.cam.ac.uk
Computing Service Courses (search: "web publishing")	http://www.training.cam.ac.uk
Academia.edu
Further Info	http://www.academia.edu/	Quick and easy to setup a web site, no html code knowledge required
Example site	http://cambridge.academia.edu/AngelaBreitenbach	Ready made tools to add research interests, papers, CV, post comments etc.
		Network with others in your academic field
		Not specific to Cambridge University user
Google Sites
Further Info	https://www.google.com/sites/help/intl/en_GB/overview.html	Quick and easy way to setup a site, example templates available, no html code knowledge needed.
		Requires a gmail account to be created.
Wordpress.com
Further info (see video)	http://wordpress.com	Primarily a blogging tool but also provides very good web site publishing facilities
Using wordpress to create a website	https://wordpress.com/learn-more/?v=site	Lots of templates/themes available and established online support
Example Wordpress sites	http://feministphilosophers.wordpress.com/
	http://www.mindcoqsci.net/	