

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY

PART IB, PAPER 8
ACADEMIC YEAR 2019 - 2020

The Faculty has obtained permission from the University to borrow the paper Experimental Psychology (the subject Experimental Psychology in Part IB of the Natural Sciences Tripos). Interested students are asked to note the following information and then to complete the details and declaration if they wish to proceed. Completed forms should be given to Directors of Studies well before the start of Michaelmas Term. Directors of Studies should then email the completed form to the Philosophy Faculty Office, phil-admin@lists.cam.ac.uk.

Course information

- Lectures take place on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week at 11.00 a.m.
- Two practical sessions of 2 hours each per week, (students have some choice in which sessions they attend, which can be made at registration for the course)
- The examination is as follows: two written papers of three hours each and one 'practical paper' of one-and-a-half hours, a number of the practical classes must be written up.

Philosophy students who opt to take the Experimental Psychology paper in 2019–2020 will take 3 other philosophy papers. The Experimental Psychology paper is double weighted. Philosophy students taking paper 8, Experimental Psychology, are exempt from taking the General Paper, paper 9.

Please note that students switching into IB Philosophy from another subject are not permitted to take the Experimental Psychology Paper.

Students should be very clear about the workload involved and discuss this option in detail with their Directors of Studies.

If you wish to be considered for this paper please complete the following details:
