THE PROCTORS

The two Proctors for each year are University officers nominated by the Colleges in rotation and then elected by the Regent House on 1 October. They normally serve a year as a Pro-Proctor first and each Proctor nominates a Deputy (normally one of the previous year's Proctors) who is also an additional Pro-Proctor. Other Pro-Proctors and Deputies can be appointed for particular purposes. The Proctor in each pair who has been a member of the Senate longest is designated Senior and the other Junior, but they have equal authority. Further information is available at: https://www.proctors.cam.ac.uk/

The Proctors as independent officers are traditionally responsible on behalf of the Regent House for seeing that the Statutes and Ordinances' are observed and are members of the Board of Scrutiny. They also belong to various other Boards, Syndicates and Committees and attend meetings of the Council as observers.

They are concerned with protecting lawful free speech and with the University's obligations under its Section 43 Code and with the Prevent duty and also with maintaining order at University events. Their former disciplinary duties relating to students have been transferred to the Office of Student Conduct Complaints and Appeals (OSCCA), although the Senior Proctor remains the disciplinary authority for Motor Licences issued to students who require them under the relevant regulations (but does not administer the issue of these licences) and the Junior Proctor registers University Clubs and Societies under those regulations and has authority to determine disputes arising between students and the Cambridge University Students' Union or the Graduate Union.

The Proctors also perform ceremonial duties at Congregations of the Regent House, University Sermons and other public occasions.

Matters of concern may be addressed to either of the Proctors, but enquiries concerning registered University clubs and societies, the Cambridge University Students' Union or the Graduate Union should be addressed to the Junior Proctor. They may be contacted by telephone or e-mail contact@proctors.cam.ac.uk or by leaving a message at the Proctors' and University Marshal's Office, The Old Schools, Cambridge (Network tel. 33314 External tel. 333314). A Proctor will normally be present 2 - 2.30 pm on Wednesdays in Full Term, although it is best to make an appointment. Access to the Office is via Senate-House Yard and the Old Schools Arcade, not via Trinity Lane and the Old Schools Reception.

UNIVERSITY CONSTABLES

These are appointed by the Vice-Chancellor under the Universities Act 1825 to assist the Proctors. Within the precincts of the University and four miles around they have the legal powers of any constable and it is an offence to assault or obstruct them. They assist the Proctors to maintain good order and protect lawful free speech.

1. Registered students and other members of the University who are in statu pupillari are required to wear the academical dress appropriate to their status in this University when attending University ceremonies in the University Church or the Senate-House, and at all other times at which the Vice-Chancellor may by public notice direct that academical dress be worn.

2. Members of the University, including Registered Students, who are not in statu pupillari, shall wear the academical dress appropriate to their respective degrees of this University in the University Church, the Senate-House, and the Schools, and generally on public occasions and at official meetings, and on all other occasions on which the Vice-Chancellor may by public notice direct that academical dress be worn.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

MEETINGS AND EVENTS ON UNIVERSITY PREMISES

Under the Education (No 2) Act 1986, the University has a duty to protect lawful free speech and issues a code of practice under Section 43 of that Act.

This Code applies to all members, students, and employees of the University and includes premises occupied by both CUSU and the GU and to outdoor and indoor meetings and events. Anyone in doubt about the application of the code must contact the Senior Proctor, who, in consultation with officers in the Registrar’s Office, will determine whether it applies. Separate but similar arrangements apply to meetings and events held in Colleges.

Permission for meetings and events on University premises

For space assigned to a single Faculty, Department or Institution, permission from that authority is required and otherwise permission from the central authority responsible for the space concerned. If a room is reserved, a booking must be made at least fourteen working days in advance. Further details are available in the Event Booking Guide at:
https://www.em.admin.cam.ac.uk/files/uoc_event_booking_guidance_0.pdf

To fulfil legal duties relating both to Prevent and Freedom of Speech there may be escalation by the authority to a Referral Group (and members of the University may also do this by email to referralconfidential@admin.cam.ac.uk). A decision by the Group that an event cannot take place or is subject to conditions is binding on all concerned, but with a right to appeal to the Vice-Chancellor or their deputy.

Management of meetings and events

Organizers must comply with any conditions set and meet the cost of doing so. All persons covered by the Section 43 Code who are present at or near an event or meeting must comply with instructions given by a Proctor or any other University officer or person authorized to act on behalf of the University in the proper discharge of their duty. Failure to do so is a breach of the Rules of Behaviour for Registered Students, of the General Regulations for Discipline for other members of the University and/or the terms of employment of University employees.

External Speakers and Attendees – Notification to the Senior Proctor

Notice is not required for academic meetings organized by a Faculty or Department or for meetings or classes of meetings approved by the Senior Proctor as being commonly or customarily held on University premises. Otherwise if a meeting or event is to be addressed or attended by persons not resident members of the University, then the organizers are required to give notice to the Senior Proctor (either on the form used to book the premises or to senior.proctor@cam.ac.uk), which should be received at least seven working days in advance (although the Senior Proctor may agree to receive information closer to the meeting or event).

Other Legal Requirements

Attention is drawn to sections 11 and 14 of the Public Order Act 1986 concerning processions and assemblies and to legislation concerning incitement to violence, breach of the peace or racial hatred or events that cause serious public disorder or breaches of the peace and to the Licensing Acts, which apply to certain University premises, including the University Centre.

COVID-19
GATHERING IN SOCIAL GROUPS

1. By acting responsibly we stand the greatest chance of minimising the risk of infection and carrying on with our work, study and leisure. The University and Colleges have put together a set of measures to keep the community as safe as possible, which have been tested and refined in consultation with over 300 students and staff. Detailed information can be found here:

https://www.cam.ac.uk/coronavirus/stay-safe-cambridge-unii

2. All members of the University should note their responsibilities as listed in the University's COVID Community Statement¹: 1) Behave in a way that minimises risk of infection; 2) Treat each other with dignity and respect; and 3) Keep up to date with public health guidance and follow it.

3. It is essential that all members of the University community follow key public health measures and guidance on gathering in social groups. Detailed information can be found here:

4. Failure to follow key public health measures and guidance on gathering in social groups may result in disciplinary action.

5. Registered Students are reminded that in signing the Matriculation Registration Form² they ‘... promise to observe the Statutes and Ordinances of the University as far as they concern me, and to pay due respect and obedience to the Chancellor and other officers of the University’. The relevant sections from the Rules of Behaviour for Registered Students state that they must:

- a) comply with instructions issued by any person or body authorised to act on behalf of the University, in the proper discharge of their duties;
- b) comply with all health and safety regulations and instructions issued by the University, a College or other associated institution;

and must not:

- f) endanger the health and safety of anyone within the precincts of the University or in the course of a University or College activity;

6. Other members of the University, including retired staff and alumni, are reminded of the sections in the General Regulations for Discipline, which state that³:

5. No member of the University shall intentionally or recklessly endanger the safety, health, or property of any member, officer, or employee of the University within the Precincts of the University.

9. All members of the University shall comply with any instruction given by a University officer, or by any other person authorised to act on behalf of the University, in the proper discharge of his or her duties.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES AND FLY POSTING

1. Performances of plays and other entertainments in public, whether indoors or outdoors, may require a licence from the Cambridge City Council or from the South Cambridgeshire District Council for the area immediately surrounding the City. Requirements and procedures are determined by the Theatres Act 1968 and the Licensing Act 2003, amongst other legislation. Guidance is available at:

https://www.cambridge.gov.uk/alcohol-and-entertainment-licensing

2. Plays, musicals or ballets, concerts and recitals or readings, May Balls, sporting displays, and other such entertainments, all constitute performances in public, whether or not admission is by payment. Any such play, or other entertainment, that is held and ticketed, with an expectation of a profit being made, will require to be licensed.

3. Organisers of public performances and entertainments on University or College premises must seek advice and permission beforehand from the relevant authorities and for events held elsewhere obtain advice and permission the owner or operator of the premises. Even on premises where a licensing certificate is in force, a particular event or performance may require additional permission.

4. Those organising public performances and entertainments must inform themselves of and abide by any relevant requirements. Applications for licences must be made in advance to the relevant authority. Events requiring a licence should not be advertised before the licence has been obtained.

5. ‘Fly-posting’, i.e., fixing posters and other items to buildings, trees, etc. on University or College property without permission is a breach of the Rules of Behaviour for Registered Students and of the General Regulations for Discipline for other members of the University. Fly-posting is also contrary to the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (on private property) and the Highways Act 1980 (in a public place) and material may be illegal for other reasons (obscenity, incitement to racial hatred etc.), or defamatory, even if posting is permitted. The City Council acts against fly-posting within the City and those who fail to remove illegal postings after notice from the Council may be prosecuted.

6. Even if an event does not require a licence, both the organisers and those controlling the premises may be prosecuted if adequate safety precautions are not taken. Promoters are also reminded that all concerned in a production may be liable to prosecution if words, actions or displays constitute an offence (e.g. obscenity, incitement to racial or religious hatred, or provocation likely to lead to a breach of the peace) and may also be liable to pay civil damages for defamation.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT
INCLUDING PLAGIARISM

In accordance with the Rules of Behaviour applying to them, registered students must not engage in any form of academic misconduct. Suspected academic misconduct will be investigated and disciplinary action may follow. The General Regulations for Discipline applying to other members of the University state that no person shall assist a candidate to make use of unfair means, i.e. to engage in academic misconduct.

The General Board has issued guidance for Candidates, Examiners, and Supervisors.
See: https://www.plagiarism.admin.cam.ac.uk/what-plagiarism. It may be supplemented by course-specific guidance from Faculties and Departments.

‘Academic misconduct’ is gaining or attempting to gain, or helping others to gain or attempt to gain, an unfair academic advantage in formal University assessment, or any activity likely to undermine the integrity essential to scholarship and research. It includes being in possession of unauthorised materials or electronic devices during an examination, including recording or communication devices or devices that can store data, even where the Registered Student is unaware that such materials or devices are unauthorised, has no intention of using them, or is unaware that they have in their possession. Academic misconduct also includes:

- Plagiarism: using someone else’s ideas, words, data, or other material produced by them without acknowledgement;
- Self-plagiarism: using the Registered Student’s own ideas, words, data or other material produced by them and submitted for formal assessment at this University or another institution, or for publication elsewhere, without acknowledgement, unless expressly permitted by the assessment;
- Contract cheating: contracting a third party to provide work, which is then used or submitted as part of a formal assessment as though it is the Registered Student’s own work;
- Collusion: working with others and using the ideas or words of this joint work without acknowledgment, as though it is the Registered Student’s own work, or allowing others to use the ideas or words of joint work without acknowledgment;
- Impersonating someone or being impersonated in an examination or arranging for someone to impersonate someone else by sitting their examination;
- Fabrication, falsification or misrepresentation of data, results or other outputs or aspects of research, including documentation and participant consent, or presenting or recording such data, etc., as if they were real;
- Failure to meet legal, ethical and professional obligations in carrying out research. This includes failure to follow agreed protocol if this failure results in unreasonable risk or harm to humans, other sentient beings or the environment, and facilitating of misconduct in research by collusion in, or concealment of, such actions by others. It includes any plan or conspiracy to attempt to do any of these things.

MOTOR LICENCES

A registered student (except one who has MA status) keeping residence as a requirement of their course of study shall not keep, use, or have kept for their use, any motor vehicle (other than a moped) within ten miles of Great St Mary's Church during term or the Long Vacation period of residence without a Motor Licence\(^1\). These are issued on the recommendation of College Tutors and must be renewed from 1 October each year. This requirement does not apply to hiring motor vehicles or receiving driving instruction.

Licences may be issued to those who have kept nine terms' residence or are graduates of any university, but only in exceptional circumstances to others (although they may also be issued if the vehicle is to be used for the purposes of a University Department or a University or College club or society). Licences are not parking-permits and satisfactory details of parking arrangements must be provided. Licences must be prominently displayed on the vehicle.

Application for a licence must be made within 14 days either of the vehicle entering the controlled area or possession of the applicant and for renewals within 14 days of the start of Full Michaelmas Term. Applications should normally be made at: https://www.proctors.cam.ac.uk/motor-control

Copies of the following documents are needed:

1. Tutor's recommendation
2. Vehicle Registration
3. Insurance certificate (unless the vehicle belongs to a Department, Club or Society)
4. Driving Licence

Correspondence should be sent to Student.Licences@admin.cam.ac.uk unless it concerns alleged breaches of the regulations, in which case it should be sent to senior.proctor@cam.ac.uk and copied to Student.Licences@admin.cam.ac.uk

The Senior Proctor may (subject to review) cancel or suspend any Licence or fine of up to £175 for breach of the regulations or of any special conditions of issue.

BICYCLES AND BOATS

Bicycles\(^2\) belonging to a registered student (except one who has MA status) who is keeping residence as a requirement of a course of study should be marked with a College letter and personal number allotted by their College. This may also help to prevent theft and improve the chances of recovery. Similarly, boats kept or used on the River Cam by such students must have a College letter and number clearly marked on the bows and be registered with the Conservators, see: https://www.camconservancy.org/

POST-EXAM CELEBRATIONS

This applies to anyone who is, has been, or will be a candidate for any University examination during the year.

Rule 14\(^1\) made by the Examination and Assessment Committee states: Candidates shall have regard for the welfare of others, including the general public, at the end of examination sessions (both their own and those of others). In particular they should avoid: noise that might disturb active examinations or other work nearby; littering or damage, especially with food or drink; obstructing highways or thoroughfares. Candidates shall comply with instructions given by University staff performing their duties.

A fine of up to £175 (subject to review) can be imposed for breaching this rule.

Some celebrations have caused:

- disturbance to active examinations;
- annoyance to people and damage, e.g. to cars;
- unacceptable litter and mess requiring special cleaning;

The following actions may constitute breaches of Rule 14:

- Throwing food, e.g. milk, flour, eggs etc.;
- Throwing paint, dye, glitter or anything that marks and cannot be brushed off;
- Spraying or throwing anything in public places;
- Spraying or throwing anything on a University site where it has been banned.

Instructions from University staff and requests to give name and college must be obeyed. Failure to do so is a breach of the Rules of Behaviour for Registered Students and of the General Regulations for Discipline for other members of the University.
