- 10 Updates from the Library
- Results of consultation on the proposal to move to a single loan period of 28 days for all user groups with unlimited auto-renewals
Thank you to everyone who contributed to the consultation at last term's meeting. As there were no objections, from Summer 2024, books borrowed from the Philosophy Library, the University Library, most Faculty and Department libraries and participating college libraries will automatically renew after 28 days for all members of the university. If a book you have on loan is requested by someone else, you will still need to return it within 3 days of receiving the email notification. Laura and Jo will continue to regularly monitor requests for books already on loan and, where possible, point the requestor to print and/or electronic copies available elsewhere. They will also continue to proactively contact users who have had books on loan for more than 12 months to encourage them to return any they no longer need. If you have any difficulties at all accessing the readings you need, please contact the Library team who will be very happy to help.
  - Philosotea
This term Philosotea will be served on Thursdays between 2:30pm and 3:30pm in the Faculty Common Room (The Old Library). All Philosophy students, staff and visitors are warmly invited to take a break with us and get to know each other over free cups of tea, biscuits, and healthy treats on the Library team.
  - Tell us what you think
The Library team are here to help and welcome your feedback and suggestions for ways to further improve the usability, accessibility and inclusivity of your library spaces, services and collections. You can contact us at any time, or let us know your thoughts via our feedback walls in the library or online, or via your student reps. We look forward to hearing from you!
- *11 Proposed syllabus changes for Tripos 2024-2025
(circ). The teaching staff have subject Caucus meetings in Michaelmas Term each year to review the syllabus for the following year. Any proposals are then submitted to Faculty Board first, before they are circulated to students, for feedback.

The draft updated Guide to Courses was previously circulated, showing proposed changes to the syllabus for 2024-25 shown as tracked changes.

Changes shown on the Guide to Courses have been approved in principle by the Faculty Board on Monday, 29th January 2024.

Unless the Student-Staff Committee has strong objections, the plan would be for the syllabus changes to be implemented with effect from October 2024.

Feedback from students would need to be discussed at the next Faculty Board meeting on 4th March.

Note that updated information about borrowed papers is still to be confirmed.

Comment: Concerns were raised by the student reps about the changes made to the Kant paper. It was noted some students may object to the apparent removal of continental philosophy from the syllabus, although no complaints had been received so far. The student reps suggested that post-Kantian philosophy could be added to other papers and/or be covered by reading/discussion groups. The Chair noted that students will still be able to write dissertations on topics in post-Kantian philosophy.

Jurisprudence is currently undergoing due process in the Faculty of Law.

Student reps are welcome to be involved in the Curriculum Development Project.

A student question was raised concerning the absence of a distinct logic paper in Part IB. The Chair reported on motivations for the restructuring of Part IA and IB a few years ago.

Action points:

The Chair acknowledged that papers such as Ethics or Political Philosophy could potentially cover topics in post-Kantian philosophy and will raise this with colleagues for discussion.

The Chair will pass on to the Undergraduate Coordinator a student request to investigate a potential European philosophy paper offered in MMLL.

Student reps will request feedback from students to judge the demand for a IB logic paper.

*12 Lecture/Group Questionnaires

Students have been encouraged to complete the online questionnaires. Lecturers have been asked to remind students, where possible, in their last lecture to fill in a feedback questionnaire for the lecture course. A QR code is also available to scan. A link to the form and QR code has been emailed to students. Help from student reps to promote the questionnaires would be greatly appreciated.

13 National Student Survey for 3rd year undergrads

The 2024 NSS survey opened on 8th January 2024. The deadline is 30 April 2024. The link is here: <https://www.thestudentsurvey.com/>

Part II Philosophy students will also be contacted direct by Ipsos MORI. Feedback is appreciated.

- 14 Postgraduate Offer Holders' Event
The offer holders' event will be held on Monday 18th March 2024. Some current postgraduate student helpers will be needed, and information will be sent nearer the time.
- 15 Cambridge Open Days for Prospective Undergraduates
The format of the 2024 Cambridge Open Days for prospective undergraduate students will be hybrid with both virtual and in-person elements. The live Open Days will be held on Thursday 4th July and Friday 5th July 2024. Some current undergraduate and postgraduate student helpers will be needed, and information will be sent nearer the time.
- 16 Green Impact
The Faculty is taking part in the University's environmental accreditation scheme Green Impact, having achieved a Silver Award in the last academic year.

*17 Any other business

Comment: Student reps had received a request to have exam reports available online. Ellen confirmed that reports of IA and IB were available on the website. Due to the Marking and Assessment Boycott (MAB), no individual reports are available for Part II but Ellen will be adding statistics in the next week. Reports for borrowed papers lie with the home department.

Exemplar essays are identified by Exam Boards and permission is sought to publish. Due to the MAB this has not been possible in this academic year. The Faculty will continue to do this in future years.

Comment: Having had some concerns from students, the student reps requested that the Student Staff Committee discuss Dr. Cofnas's recent blog post.

It was confirmed that recent comments made by Dr Cofnas in his blog post are being taken very seriously by the Faculty. It was stressed that all students are here on merit.

It was pointed out that the research proposal with which Dr. Cofnas applied for a Leverhulme Fellowship was on the biological basis of moral norms and not connected to the content of the blog.

The student reps questioned whether Dr Cofnas continued to supervise and assess students. The Chair confirmed that he did not currently supervise for the Faculty.

The student reps suggested that some form of communication from the Faculty regarding the circumstances of Dr Cofnas's appointment, and the fact that matters were being investigated, would be an appropriate way to allay student concerns.

- 18 Date of next meeting
The next Student Staff Committee will take place on Monday 6th May 2024.
