Philosophy MPhil – 2020-21

Information on procedures for MPhil essay submission, Michaelmas Term 2020

Essays – For both MT20 and LT21

At least one essay topic must be in the following areas of Philosophy, including their history: Metaphysics and Epistemology, Philosophy of Mind, Logic and Philosophy of Language, Philosophy of Science, Ethics and Moral Psychology, Aesthetics, and Political and Legal Philosophy. Both essays cannot come from the same area. Students with concerns about whether their essays meet this requirement are encouraged to seek the advice of their supervisor and the MPhil course director. With the approval of the MPhil Course Director, one essay can be in some other area, provided it is still appropriately related to Philosophy.

Procedural notes

Please note the following carefully (and keep this letter for future reference):

1. Your essay must be not more than 4000 words, including footnotes and appendices but excluding bibliography. Please note that the word limit for the essay will be strictly applied. Examiners may decline to read any material in excess of it. For Michaelmas Term 2020, your essay will be submitted via Moodle, and you will not be required to submit a cover sheet. However, candidates should include a line at the end of their essay confirming the word count.

2. There is no formal limit on the amount of supervision a student may have on an MPhil essay, the decision on how much to provide resting with supervisors. However, a typical, and reasonable, supervising schedule would be as follows:
  - i) a brief initial meeting with the supervisor for orientation, general advice, guidance on reading;
  - ii) two further supervisions for each essay (comments on and discussion of a first draft, with advice for possible improvements; and further comments on a revised draft, for each);

The student would then submit the final version without further supervision.

Your work must be typed. Information on presentation of your dissertation can be found here: <https://www.phil.cam.ac.uk/curr-students/postgraduates/grad-presentation-guide/>

3. Your work must acknowledge all sources of information, including unpublished ideas and suggestions, e.g. from your supervisor.
4. Essays will be subject to anonymous marking. Please save your essays just using the title of your essay (no reference to your names). Please do not include your name anywhere within the text of your essay.
5. Essays submitted via Moodle will automatically be checked by Turnitin for plagiarism. Please make sure to check the box to confirm reading and understanding the University Plagiarism rules. These can be viewed here: <https://www.plagiarism.admin.cam.ac.uk/definition>

You must submit your dissertation, via Moodle by:

FRIDAY 4th DECEMBER 2020, 12 NOON

A coversheet will not be required.

Please also note that submission deadlines for the dissertation are taken very seriously. Except in exceptional circumstances (e.g. a medical emergency), late submission will attract a penalty of five marks for every working day, or proportion of this for part of a day. If you have any concerns about meeting the stated deadlines, please contact the Postgraduate Secretary as soon as possible.

Important Note

It is sometimes possible to arrange an extension to the submission deadline for either your essay, usually due to unforeseen medical circumstances. Further information about this possibility can be found here: <https://www.cambridgestudents.cam.ac.uk/your-course/graduate-study/your-student-status/extending-your-end-registration-date#Extensions%20for%20students%20on%20a%20one%20or%20two%20year%20programme>:
Please contact the Postgraduate Secretary if you think this applies to you.

Further Guidelines for submitting your essay via Moodle.

1. Rename your files ready for uploading:

Your dissertation should be submitted as either a docx or pdf file. The title of your submitted dissertation should be: The title of your dissertation (or shortened version thereof). Please only use alphanumerical characters and spaces in your essays titles (no punctuation marks). Thus e.g.:
