It was noted that if students miss this deadline without prior approval from the Chair of Examiners, the paper would be failed as the final deadline for amending exam entries would have already passed.

- 7 National Student Survey 2016
It was noted that the deadline for completing The National Student Survey is Thursday 30th April. It was reported that all part II students have been emailed a link to the survey. It was explained that the NSS is an independent survey asking students to rate the quality of their Higher Education experience, and the results of this survey help prospective students, their families and advisors to make study choices. Students were strongly encouraged to take part in this survey, and it was noted that the University is offering one double Trinity May Ball ticket, one Ipad Mini, and three £50 cash prizes. It was noted that the prize draw results will be announced after the survey closes on 30th April 2016.

- 13 General Board Learning & Teaching Review – Philosophy
It was noted that the Faculty is grateful to the students who participated in the General Board Learning and Teaching Review. It was noted that the report was expected to be sent to the Faculty for factual checking sometime in May 2016, before it would then be submitted to the Faculty Board for a formal response.
- 14 Titles for Parts IB and II extended essays
It was reported that following on from the discussions at the last Staff Student Committee meeting on the possibility of introducing a list of pre-approved titles for Extended essays, which students would be able to choose from, Faculty Board decided at its meeting on 29th February 2016, that lists of questions would be created in the Easter Term's caucus meetings, and presented at the Faculty Board meeting on 27th June 2016. Anni Raty asked whether students would be given the chance to give feedback on these proposed titles, or if a decision would be made at Faculty Board without student consultation. Anni said that she'd understood at the SSC meeting on February 2nd that the idea was to allow students the chance to give feedback. Dr Arif Ahmed agreed that it was important to get feedback from students before the end of Easter Term, and suggested that although the SSC didn't have the power to make this decision, the Caucuses could be asked to consider circulating the proposed list of titles after deciding on them, but before Faculty Board meets, with a deadline for students to return any comments. Anni felt that this was a good suggestion, as long as there was a suitable time frame for students to give their feedback.

15 Faculty Newsletter

It was noted that the 13th issue of the Faculty Newsletter is due to be ready in mid May.

16 Lecture Questionnaires evaluation sheets

It was noted that evaluation sheets for completed lecture questionnaires for Lent Term 2016 would shortly be available for consultation from the Library issue desk.

It was further noted that if students had any further suggestions on how the questionnaires used to collect feedback on Lectures, Discussion Groups and Logic Classes could be improved, this would be very welcome.

17 Part IA Discussion Group readings

It was noted that the Ethics & Political Philosophy caucus meeting in Easter Term would make suggestions for reading(s) about Equality of Opportunity, for approval by the Faculty Board at the meeting on 16th May.

18 Session on taking Experimental Psychology

It was reported that some current IB students had agreed to run a session on April 20th for any IA students considering taking Experimental Psychology, to give them an insight into how the course was run. It was noted that the Faculty was grateful to these students for giving up their time, and hoped that a similar session would run again next year.

19 Arts & Social Sciences Open Days

It was noted that the dates of the Cambridge Open Days for prospective undergraduate students are Thursday 30 June and Friday 1 July 2016. It was further noted that on each day there will be an information stand located in the Law Faculty Foyer from 10am – 4pm, as well as a course presentation and a tour of the Faculty. Dr Arif Ahmed explained that manning the information stand was very helpful for prospective students who were visiting the University, and he encouraged students to volunteer to do this, and he said it is usually an enjoyable experience. It was also explained that the Faculty provides Amazon vouchers to students who are able to help at the Open Day. It was noted that if any students were interested in volunteering to help on the stand for one or more two hour slots, or leading a tour, they should contact the undergraduate co-ordinator, Dr Arif Ahmed – ama24@cam.ac.uk. Anni Raty and Tara Khalid also suggested that they would post information about the Open Days on year group facebook pages.

Turnitin Policy

Heather Sanderson explained that the University had recently updated its policy on Turnitin (a plagiarism checking tool). Whereas previously the Faculty was required to ask all students to sign a form consenting to their work being submitted to Turnitin, the University's new policy is that it would be sufficient for the Faculty to mention in the undergraduate handbook, and on the Faculty website, that any submitted work may be checked via Turnitin. Consent forms will no longer be used.

The meeting ended at 13.22.
